Theft

(CPD Case# 14-32981-OF)

CONCORD, NH - The Concord Police Department is asking the public for their assistance in identifying the subject believed to be involved in an alleged theft.

On 8/01/14 at approximately 0830 police were called to Cumberland Farms, located at 102 Manchester Street, for a report of a past theft.

According to the manager, a delivery person had observed a customer select and conceal three bottles of Wild Irish Rose Wine (valued at $5.99 each) in his pants. The manager later confirmed that 3 bottles of the wine were unaccounted for.

The manager reviewed video footage which showed an early-90s model grey Toyota Camry pull into the parking lot at approximately 7:25 AM. A male subject got out of the front passenger seat and entered the store. The Camry then parked on the south side of the lot. The driver never got out of the vehicle.

The passenger entered the store and went to the wine display where he could be seen lifting his shirt and putting something in his pants. He could be seen doing this twice while inside the store. The subject then selected and paid for two bottles of Power Ade. The subject never removed nor paid for the bottles of wine. The subject then left the store with the wine still concealed in his pants.

The subject appeared to be in his 30's, with brown hair in a buzz cut, medium to heavy build, wearing a light blue t-shirt, blue plaid shorts and a gold chain around his neck.
